VI. NARRATIVE OF THE REPORT:

International Coastal Cleanup Day is a promise to bring cleanliness and purity to nature. This annual event was created to raise awareness regarding the growing beach and ocean pollution on our planet. Disregarding proper trash disposal is the main factor leading to severely high levels of pollution in the environment, particularly in the oceans that make up over 70% of our planet. The Philippines, possessing over 7,000 islands, is unfortunately also the largest contributor of plastic ocean waste.

While PCGA promotes classes and seminars to educate the public regarding the control and proper disposal of waste, we must also take charge of cleaning up the existing trash and rubbish on our beaches. To that end, 604th CGAS, along with CGS Capiz and other agencies listed above conducted a coastal cleanup on Saturday, September 21st along Cogon Beach, Brgy Cogon, Roxas City, Capiz.

Active PCGA members in good standing involved in this event qualify for the PCGA International Coastal Cleanup Day ribbon.
