Pulido Jr. PCG, Commander of CGDCV, the opening ceremony gathered CGDCV personnel, civilian employees, and Coast Guard Auxiliary members to celebrate unity through sports.

The Sportsfest aimed to promote physical fitness, camaraderie, and teamwork, while encouraging a healthy work-life balance. The event opened with a vibrant parade of teams representing various CGDCV units and stations, followed by the ceremonial lighting of the torch and oath of sportsmanship, symbolizing dedication to fair play and discipline.

In his message, COMMO Pulido emphasized that the Sportsfest is not just about competition but about strengthening bonds and the spirit of bayanihan within the Coast Guard community. Exhibition games and cheerleading performances added energy and excitement to the launch.
