for meritorious and invaluable service of these PCGA Officers and Auxilairy for the successful conduct of the 2024 International Coastal Clean-Up Activity on 21 September 2024, simultaneously conducted in the following sites:

Il Corso Lifemalls
Paknaan, Mandaue
Umapad, Mandaue
Lapu-Lapu City, Cebu
Bayawan City, Negros Oriental Talibon & Tubigon, Bohol.

The aforementioned CGADCV members, particularly the 219th Auxiliary Squadron, demonstrated exceptional commitment and dedication by actively ave participating in and supporting the said activity in collaboration with various LGUs, NGOs, and CSOs. Through their collective efforts, a total of 3,074.47 kilograms of plastic waster were successfully collected by 863 volunteers utilizing the Ocean Conservancy's Clean Swell App in the Il Corso and Mandaue sites, under the leadership and coordination of the 219th CGAS officers.

Through their outstanding contribution and steadfast commitment to marine environmental protection, aforementioned PCGA members have brought distinction to the organization and exemplified the values of volunteerism, humanitarian service, and environmental stewardship. Their exemplary performance merits recognition and serves as an inspiration worthy of emulation by their fellow PCGA members in the continuous pursuit of public service.
